What's New in the RSS Feed Popper?

NewsRSS is an amazing RSS Reader. But the user interface is not very intuitive and UI/UX is inconsistent between views, and items that are unread are not that obvious. The Feed Popper website is clean and it obviously looks like the RSS. Feed Popper is a light weight RSS reader in the form of a web application. It uses a different display method than other RSS viewers - much like how Flipboard does. This means the user doesn't have to click "all feeds" to get a visual overview of the feeds they subscribe to, just click on a feed. With the display set to "Feed Popper", it will show you the latest 10 items for any feed you subscribe to, just click on the feed to open it. Feed Popper is not a full RSS feed reader. It is meant to just display the latest feeds that you subscribe to, you still need to visit the source site to subscribe and read the feeds. Even if you only read the latest 10 feeds, it is still a big timesaver and you can save a ton of effort. Feed Popper Description: NewsRSS is an amazing RSS Reader.
