by F Meixner. 2011 87NFLPA Executive Committee Member Steve Sviggum has become the next player targeted by the league after coming to terms on his own long term deal, a person familiar with the situation told Yahoo! Sports. The person requested anonymity because the agreement wasn't finalized. A similar agreement is expected to be announced for Donté Stallworth, who has been linked to a possible trade in the last week by league sources, according to the person. Sviggum is the third veteran player to agree to an extension this offseason. Last week, the NFLPA announced the signings of Jason Peters and Nnamdi Asomugha, who will join Michael Vick and Steve Smith in getting offseason deals. The NFLPA also announced Tuesday that it has authorized union head DeMaurice Smith to hire former NFLPA president Gene Upshaw as a senior counsel and non-executive member of the executive committee. In the last 10 days, the players have come to terms on each of their own contracts. The deal will make Sviggum, a receiver, the highest paid player on the active roster. He received a $7.5 million salary cap number in 2013, second highest on the team behind Vick. Sviggum had been an ESPN analyst since the 2008 season, when he signed a six-year deal. He will be eligible for unrestricted free agency after the 2013 season. Before signing with the Chiefs, Sviggum was a 1st round pick in 2001. He finished his career with the Chargers where he recorded 1,514 receiving yards and scored 17 touchdowns.Q: Changing variable in controller to get value from view I have a controller that needs to get the value of a variable passed in from a view: public function index() { $level = $this->input->post('level'); $category_id = $this->input->post('category'); $data['level'] = $this->Procedures_model->get_by_level($level, $category_id); $data['category_id'] = $category_id; $this->load->view
