PS: You also don't need to make copies of all the files, and you can specify the order in which they get installed, and if you want to, you can even install the files individually. Just remember that if you decide to do any of these you need to download all the drivers and manage your own installation. This is not at all complicated and the instructions are very clear. But, I'm not going to tell you how to do it. Ask the helpers on you way to change at the same time as you play. There is also a "Hide items" button, or at least it's what I use. The "Hide items" button makes all these tools disappear from your list, even those that you haven't selected yet. It
