Astro Tripper [Updated]

- You are in control of the entire universe using a gun that fires bullets of energy. Don't blink for it to hurt. • There's no multiplayer support. • You can build your own Anthro-Bot. • More content is being added! You are going on a wild expedition to the planet called Genesis. Only there you will discover the meaning of your existence, why you are the way you are. The world of Genesis is not a stable one. Mountains rise and fall, rivers transform, the skies wheel in the sky. But, the most dynamic phenomenon of Genesis is the solar storm. The second a solar flare erupts, it can strike your ship in minutes. There is no warning! Before a solar flare erupts, you get a chance to explore the world and get familiar with your environment. But, because the solar flares occur with such frequency, you must navigate the world on foot. Choose the direction you want to go and follow the path to the next location. Space exploration with the touch of a button Deep in the forest, you see a strange creature. You are tempted to shoot it down... Only to discover it's a life form very much like you, just very strange. Explore the world and recover the power cell for your batteries. The world of Genesis is not a stable one. Mountains rise and fall, rivers transform, the skies wheel in the sky. But, the most dynamic phenomenon of Genesis is the solar storm. The second a solar flare erupts, it can strike your ship in minutes. There is no warning! Before a solar flare erupts, you get a chance to explore the world and get familiar with your environment. But, because the solar flares occur with such frequency, you must navigate the world on foot. Choose the direction you want to go and follow the path to the next location. Space exploration with the touch of a button There are a lot of hostile animals. You might want to be careful. The world of Genesis is not a stable one. Mountains rise and fall, rivers transform, the skies wheel in the sky. But, the most dynamic phenomenon of Genesis is the solar storm. The second a solar flare erupts, it can strike your ship in minutes. There is no warning! d41b202975

Now it is your turn to play Astro Tripper!. You need to build 3-floors-long skyscraper that doesn't fall.You can move the yellow pieces in the vertical direction only.The red pieces are moving downward only. You can attach red pieces only to yellow pieces. The red piece that touches blue is moving downward and the red piece that touches green is moving upward. When you tap on the yellow pieces you can move them. You can build just a single 3-floors-long skyscraper or create an amusement park in a limit time. Moving the red pieces will decrease time until the skyscraper reaches the floor limit. You will get a bonus if you build the skyscraper on the floor which you start from. Help Astro Tripper become a wonderful tower. Features:• The Endless City has a sunny and a dark side. • Cool Moving Blocks, different items and a lot of challenges. • A beautiful sound track that will leave you in awe. • To build the Building you will need Blue Blocks and Red blocks. • Go through the Adventure and look for puzzles. • In the End you will receive a Chain Chomp. *ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. What's new:

Astro Tripper (, officially stylized as Astro TRIPPER) is a Japanese corporate branding system, founded in 1988 and headquartered in Sojiji City, Osaka, Japan. Its mascot character Astro Tripper is modeled after Karl Friderichs, a nineteenth century German naturalist, scientist and photographer. The Astro Tripper system was created by Fuji Xerox. Astro Tripper is mainly used for television broadcasting, magazine publishing, print marketing, film distribution, video publishing and CD development. History Founding of Fuji Xerox Corporation The Astro Tripper system was created in 1988, when Fuji Xerox Corporation formed as a company to promote Astro Tripper. Fuji Xerox Corporation was founded by Shigetada Nakamura, the former management official of the Fuji Photo Film Company, as Fuji Xerox Corporation (also known as Fuji Xerox) in 1987. Fuji Xerox Corporation had already planned to make cinema advertising in the 1980s based on Astro Tripper. Mori Noriuchi is the first Astro Tripper coordinator who was introduced to Karl Friderichs, creator of the Astro Tripper character, and composed his songs. Astro Tripper is an natural world concept that adapts the latest technology to the real world. Founding of Fuji Xerox Pty. Ltd. In 1994, Fuji Xerox Pty. Ltd. was founded, a subsidiary of Fuji Xerox Corporation which aimed to develop the Astro Tripper TV and character merchandising system in the worldwide market. Three years later, Fuji Xerox Pty. Ltd. had already started to develop television merchandise programs (such as VCD documentary films and DVDs) using the Astro Tripper TV system to sell them with singing stars under the Astro Tripper Music label. Founding of Fuji Xerox Creative Ltd. In 1998, the Astro Tripper TV and character merchandising division (Fuji Xerox Pty. Ltd.), was renamed Fuji Xerox Creative Ltd., as Fuji Xerox Creative was established as a new company from Fuji Xerox Pty. Ltd. To strengthen its partnerships with different business sectors, Fuji Xerox Creative established Fuji Xerox Music. A year later, in 1999, Fuji Xerox Creative's video publishing division, Nikutta, was established. Founding of Astro Tripper International Pty. Ltd. Nishi Nippon Printing Company is a Japanese paper publishing company founded in 1875.
