This is a feast of the senses with the moon and the sun filling your heart with acceptance, comprehension, and unconditional love. Bring you soft words of praise and affirmation to further enhance your being. The only problem? Your hard-headed Mars will lead him- or herself through your 8th house of family, and love. With Chiron this week, you could find yourself feeling sad for no apparent reason. They say theres a silver lining to every dark cloud, and while you think youre moving through a hard patch, there might be another lesson learned, no matter the cost. Blood Orange planet Uranus is winding down his glory days and heading toward Capricorn, signaling the end of the cycle for him this year. Meanwhile, Mercury and the Sun are playing a game of peekaboo, resting in your partnership sector. The key to getting over your insecurity, which youve been feeling since last Thursday, is to try and become more understanding, open and honest with yourself. As Mercury turns retrograde in your sign later this week, you can begin to utilize these qualities now, which makes it easier to accomplish all the resolutions you made at your last birthday. A break at work is recommended, so you can properly assess any grievances with potential solutions in mind. 5ec8ef588b
