Soundspectrum G-Force Platinum V3.8.5 (NEW)

if you have a problem, please write to support or visit the g-force forum at > soundspectrum g-force platinum v3.8.5 (new) g-force standalone is the only audio visualization program that enables you to visualize the audio from a cd player, stereo amplifier, or computer's sound card. it is the only audio visualization program that enables you to visualize the audio from a cd player, stereo amplifier, or computer's sound card. g-force standalone is the only audio visualization program that enables you to visualize the audio from a cd player, stereo amplifier, or computer's sound card. you can also download g-force platinum. it's a complete new version and many fixes. you can't upgrade to it yet, because the upgrade cost is too high. i'll post when i find out what it's going to cost. i also tried the beta. it crashes. i'll try the latest version. i've been using it for about three months without any problems. you can find it here: www.audiovisual-software.com/software/gforce-platinum.htm i got a response from them, but i'm not allowed to post it. it's only for people who have purchased g-force gold and want to upgrade to g-force platinum. you can email them, but i can't let anyone know, because i am not allowed to disclose their email addresses. they are offering a program where the upgrade cost is $79.99. they will also send you the newest version of g-force gold free. (they are offering it at $39.99, but that's not the same program. they are limiting the number of upgrades to that program, i think because they want people to buy their software.) if you decide to do it, let me know. the new version is `gforce_platinum_v3.8.5.exe`. it's a one-time-download. you can read the instructions from here: www.audiovisual-software.com/software/upgrade-to-gforce-platinum. 5ec8ef588b
